If you're reading this, you probably want to get your hands on our information or records. Well, we're here to help!

2. HOW TO ACCESS OUR RECORDS

The Information Regulator has published a guide that will help you navigate this process of asking for information. The guide explains the types of information that you can ask for and how to submit a PAIA request. Yup, it's a bit of a process.

We've got copies of the guide in English, Afrikaans, and isiXhosa, or you can swing by our offices and check out a hardcopy. The Information Regulator has copies available in each official language here:

3. WHO TO ASK

If you want access to our information or records, you can ask Elizabeth, our information officer. Here are her details:

6. WHERE PERSONAL INFORMATION TRAVELS

We use Microsoft 365 to do our work and store all information. Microsoft stores all our content in the European Union.

We use Xero accounting software. Xero is based in New Zealand.

7. HOW WE PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

We have taken reasonable steps to protect the integrity and confidentiality of personal information.

We use internet security software to scan and block emails and websites with malicious content, to block malware, to detect incoming network attacks and detect and block botnet communication.

We also use firewalls to protect our computers, and we regularly remind each other not to be idiots. That has been the most effective security measure we could have implemented.
